

POETRY

There is a Way

by Peter Mitchell

There is a way for each man and woman,
every child and adult, gifted and limited,
injured and whole, young and old.
There is a way.

There is a way for each child of the universe,
brown and white, Jew and Gentile,
members of all or no faith, citizens of all nations.
There is a way.

There is a path that is only yours to walk,
a special path that is yours to find,
a pathway to your unity and completeness.
There is a path.

There is our struggle toward the Light,
each distinct yet all the same,
one path toward unity yet each one different,
our struggle but my struggle and your struggle.

There is the Truth,
each one a part of God (All Love) at the center of their heart.
Each with their own challenge, own path, own way/